DR. ECKENRODE TAKEN BY DEATH

Brief Illness Results in the Death of well Known Local Dentist. Was Born Near Bonneauville. Leaves
Wife and Nine Children.

After a brief illness, Dr. Charles Edward Eckenrode died at 9:20 Friday evening at his home on West High street, just a few minutes after three of his sons, hurriedly summoned
when his condition became critical, reached his bedside. He was aged 69 years, 8 months and 9 days.

Dr. Eckenrode was taken ill with congestion of the lungs about a week ago. On Thursday evening he was feeling better, arose and seemed to be much improved. A short time afterward he sustained a stroke of paralysis and gradually sank. His children living away from town were notified
of his condition and three of them,
James and John Eckenrode, of Philadelphia, and Joseph Eckenrode, of Brooklyn, arrived here on the 9:05
train Friday evening, getting home
but a short time before their father died.

Dr. Eckenrode had been a resident of Gettysburg since 1881, practicing dentistry at his late residence during that time. He was a son of Aloysius and Nancy Eckenrode and was born at Bonneauville on April 10, 1844, residing on the farm near Bonneauville until he moved to Gettysburg. He was a devout member of St. Francis Xavier church.

Dr. Eckenrode leaves his wife whose maiden name was Mary Swinderman.
Her home was in Westminster where they were married. Nine children are living, Joseph Eckenrode, of Brooklyn, New York; William Eckenrode, of Warren, Ohio; John, James and Robert Eckenrode, of Philadelphia; Leo Eckenrode, of Pittsburgh; Edward Eckenrode, of Omaha, Nebraska;
Fannie Eckenrode, a Sister of Charity,
at Staunton, Virginia; Miss Anna
Eckenrode, at home.

He also leaves one brother and two sisters, John W. Eckenrode, of Lancaster, Mrs. Mary Rindlaub, of York Springs; and Mrs. Flora Golden, of York.

The funeral will be held on Monday morning at 10:45 from St. Francis Xavier church. Rev. Fr. Boyle will conduct the service.

GETS $600 FOR DISAPPOINTMENT

Emmitsburg Girl Sues for Three Thousand Dollars Damages for Breach of Promise and Gets Six Hundred. Late Proposal.

Miss Carolina Saunders, of Emmitsburg, was on Friday afternoon given a verdict of $600 by a jury at Frederick against Felix A. Stouffer, of Emmitsburg, whom she sued for $3,000 for breach of promise to marry.
Miss Saunders claimed that Stouffer promised to marry her in 1911.

For six years, according to the plaintiff's testimony, Miss Saunders, who is 28, and Mr. Stouffer who is 26
and owns several threshing machines
and a saw-mill, "kept company" so faithfully that all of Miss Saunders'
male acquaintances were afraid to pay her attention.

Mr. Stouffer's contention, however,
is that so many of his alleged fiancée's male friends paid her such devoted attention that he was unwilling to marry her.

The evidence tended to show that after Stouffer had promised marriage to Miss Saunders, he went West, disposing of all his personal property before he went.

Miss Saunders' father testified that he had heard Stouffer propose marriage to his daughter as he, Mr. Saunders, lay in bed in an adjoining room.
"I am like an owl," said Mr. Saunders in response to a question from Stouffer's lawyer regarding his habits of sleeping and waking. The hour at which the proposal is alleged to have been made was about half past eleven at night.

FOUNTAIN DALE

Fountain Dale—A forest fire raging in the mountains, near the home of Simon Cline on Friday evening, was noticed by Mr. Bailey. The fire was extinguished by Mr. Bailey and Mr.
Cline, before much damage was done.

Miss Elizabeth Frick, of Waynesboro, spent several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mickle.

The teachers' meeting at Weeping Willow on Friday evening was well attended.

J. P. Slaybaugh and Rev. Wilson
Hummelbaugh were Saturday visitors at the home of Rev. D. C. Eyer.

TOOK HIS LIFE

Popular Cashier of Mercersburg Bank
Commits Suicide.

Frank C. Brewer, cashier of the First National Bank, of Mercersburg, was found dead in his room at an early hour Friday morning, with blood still trickling from the arteries of both wrists and his throat, which he had gashed deeply with a razor, that was lying on the floor in a pool of blood. He was discovered by the maid who passed through the room at 3 a.
m. He was well known in Gettysburg.

No cause for the tragic act of self-inflicted death is assigned, other than worry over the condition of his aged mother, who, for the past several days,
has been seriously ill—so much so that the death of her son has not as yet been communicated to her. He complained of a pain in the back of his neck, but remained at the bank till everything was balanced up, and was in good spirits Thursday night.

PUPILS CENSURE THE CURB MARKET

Say it Causes High Cost of Living and Many Disputes. Filthy Institution Says Another. High School Debaters Busy.

Gettysburg's curb market was blamed for the high cost of living, it was alleged to be filthy, a cause for quarrels, and an injustice to regularly established grocers, in a debate at the High School building Friday afternoon
in which the question for argument was "Resolved that the Curb Market is a Benefit to the People of Gettysburg." The negative side won. One of the speakers opposing the market said,

"The market is a benefit to the farmers but not to the people of Gettysburg. How many of the women of town enjoy dressing to go down town, then coming back home and putting on work clothes again to get breakfast for their husbands? The grocers carry just as good vegetables and we get city vegetables from them before our own country produce is brought in by the farmers. The market regulations prohibit the merchants buying in large quantities from the market men, so they must get their vegetables from the cities. At the market the women fuss, take things from each other, and say nasty things. One woman sat on a crate of strawberries so no one else could get them.

"The market is directly responsible for the high cost of living in Gettysburg. Here the farmers get together and agree to put up their prices. They couldn't do that if they peddled their goods from door to door. The majority of our people are sensible, but there are a few extravagant ones who give away prices the market men ask and then the rest must do it, too, if they want the goods. The market is a nuisance and no benefit to Gettysburg."

Another speaker on the negative side said "One day the Square is used for stabling teams, the next for selling food. It is filthy. A distinguished visitor has said our Square is 'a disgrace to the town'. Farmers bring in goods that they have gathered a day before and sometimes several days previous. We do not always get fresh goods at market and it is not fair to our regularly established grocers to put them against such competition."

Those who favored the market declared that if there were no such institution the truckers would sell three fourths of their vegetables and fruits to the grocers where it would "decrease in quality and increase in price", while the curb market allows it all to be sold in two hours. "Farmers would rather pay double the present stall rent than go back to the old system." The affirmative side laid special emphasis on the way the Carlisle and Chambersburg street residents used to get the pick of the best things before the people in other parts ever saw it. They also said the market kept garden truck from being shipped away and that, by keeping it home, the cost of living was reduced. The annoyance of men selling marketing from door to door was also brought out.

The debaters who opposed the market were Nellie Ramer and Lillian Kissinger, while those who favored it were Ralph Rebert and Clair Hoofnagle. The judges' decision was two to one in favor of the young ladies' arguments. The judges were Mrs.
Charles Dougherty, Clyde Bream and Claire Sowers.

The debate was held as a part of the program of a Clover Leaf Society entertainment which included, among other numbers, music by the High School orchestra, an oration, Lorna Weaver; duet, Mary and Nannie Rudi-sill; recitation, Gilbert Reen; oration, George Sachs; piano solo, Edna Zin-
card; recitation, Gladys Ott; duet, Margaret Minter and William Zincard; the society paper, Henrietta Hersh; piano duet, Caroline Blocher and Ruth Bender.

PREPARING FOR PARCEL CHANGES

Will Increase Weight Limit and Enlarge Zones. Some Changes in Effect the First of the Year, Others not Until Later.

Two official orders, widening the scope of the parcel post, are expected at the local post office. The one, effective January 1, changes the weight limit
from 20 to 50 pounds in the first
and second zones, and from 11 to 20
pounds in the other zones, and the other, to be inaugurated March 16, permits mailing of books, which have been considered third class mail in the past, but which after the change will be sent by parcel post as fourth class mail, and at a much cheaper rate than
at present.

With the new orders will come a change in zones, including additional territory to be covered under certain rates. A table is now being prepared giving the proposed changes. The weight changes effective on and after
Jan. 1, are as follows:

From 20 to 50 pounds in the first
and second zones, and from 11 to 20
pounds in the third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth zones. The changes in the weight limit have been anticipated for a long time, but the order placing books on the parcel post schedule came as a big and agreeable surprise. Publishers are now making their shipments principally by express because to mail books requires great expenditures.

The present rate for books is one cent for every two ounces. The new order will permit shipment of books in 50-pound lots at parcel post rates. The new schedules will also include lower rates for packages weighing more than four ounces in the third, fourth,
fifth and sixth zones.

In the third zone the rate will be six cents for the first pound and two cents for each additional pound; in the fourth zone, seven cents for the first pound and four cents for each additional pound; in the fifth zone, eight cents for the first pound and six cents for each additional pound; in the sixth zone, nine cents for the first pound and eight cents for each additional pound.

NEW TRUST COMPANY

New Financial Institution for York County Chartered by State.

A charter was granted at Harrisburg Friday to the Hanover Trust company which is capitalized at $125,- 000. The certificate of incorporation was approved by Governor Tener.

The corporation is formed for the purpose of the insurance of owners of real estate, mortgages, and others
in real estate, from loss by reason of defective titles, liens, and incumbrances. The officers are: president
D. D. Ehrhart; vice president, H. M.
Stokes; secretary, M. O. Smith; treasurer, L. H. Hoffaker. The company has several locations in view and the new financial institution will be opened early in the new year.

GOOD SUGGESTION

Something to be Considered at Local Federal Building.

The new post office building at Hanover is now being occupied. The Record-Herald of that town says that brass railings are needed on the steps
as elderly persons are afraid of falling and the ascent will likely become very icy in winter weather. It is a suggestion that will bear consideration at our own new post office. The Gettysburg building will likely be ready for occupancy about February first, certainly not later than March first. The workmen are now waiting for the large marble slabs on the first floor.
They are expected any day.

CURRENCY BILL PASSES SENATE

Democrats Vote Solidly For the Measure.

NOW GOES TO CONFERENCE

Differs Only Slightly From That Passed by the House—Provisions of the Bill.

Washington, Dec. 20.—The administration's currency bill was passed in the senate by a vote of 54 to 34.

Immediately after the announcement was made that the bill had passed the senate named nine conferees to act on behalf of the senate as a conference committee of the two houses to adjust the differences between the senate and house bills.

The senate adopted, as a substitute for the house bill, the measure framed by the Democratic senate caucus, which is considered satisfactory to President Wilson.

The Democrats voted solidly for the measure. Senator Poinsett (Progressive) and six Republicans joined the Democratic majority in the final vote on the bill.

The senate rejected the substitute for the administration currency bill framed by Senator Hitchcock and the Republican members of the banking committee by a vote of 43 to 41. Senator Hitchcock voted with the Republicans.

The Democrats were forced to call upon Vice President Marshall to cast a deciding vote to break a tie and reject the proposal to strike out of the bill the provision allowing the appointment of officials by the federal reserve board without reference to the civil service law.

The fundamentals of the bill provide:

The issue of currency, guaranteed by the government, based upon notes and bills representing commercial transactions and backed by a gold reserve. The new currency is expected to contract and expand to meet the varied demands of trade.

The concentration of the bank reserves of the country in regional institutions capitalized by the banks of the country and controlled by directors elected by the banks.

The creation of a market for the negotiable commercial paper which forms the bulk of the assets of the banks, where, in times of stress, those assets may be easily and without loss transformed into cash.

The establishment of from eight to twelve great regional banks throughout the country, which will issue currency, rediscount paper and centralize and mobilize the reserves of the local banks.

The creation of a federal reserve board of seven members to be appointed by the president, with final powers of control and supervision over the entire system.

In the foregoing general principles the bill is practically the same that passed the house. But in phraseology and more or less important details, hundreds of changes have been made by the senate.

Under the house bill the earnings of the regional banks, after paying 5 per cent dividends on the stock, and establishing a 20 per cent surplus, would have been divided among the member banks and the government. The senate has amended the bill so that the stockholders shall receive a 5 per cent dividend, a surplus fund of 40 per cent of the capital shall be established, and that the remainder of the earnings shall be divided, one-half going to the government as a franchise tax and the remainder founding a "depositors insurance fund," to reimburse depositors in failing member banks.

The senate has broadened materially the character of the commercial paper which will be eligible for rediscount and which may be used as a basis for currency. Under the house bill only paper maturing within ninety days was available, but the senate has broadened the provision to include a percentage of six months paper in order to accommodate smaller banks in rural communities which handle little short time paper.

Senator Burton endeavored to prevent the issue of the new currency in denominations of $1 to $2, but an amendment to that effect was rejected by a vote of 44 to 35.

Washington, Dec. 20.—Senator Ashurst, of Arizona, introduced a bill in the senate providing for the construction of a barbed wire fence along the Mexican border from the Pacific to where the Rio Grande river becomes the boundary line.

The fence is to be of five strands of 12 gauge wire and must not cost more than $450 a mile. The bill carries an appropriation of $350,000.

MANY ACCIDENTS PROBED

Board Also Asks For Authority to Supervise Issue of Railroad Securities and Control Over Capitalization.

Washington, Dec. 20.—Emphasizing the necessity for further action by the federal government to provide greater safety for travelers and employees on railroads, the interstate commerce commission, in its annual report, submitted to congress, makes vigorous recommendations for additional powers over the physical construction and operation of the roads.

The commission also recommends that authority be given to it to supervise the issue of railroad securities and some measure of control over the capitalization.

Conditions disclosed by the commission's investigation of railroad accidents in the last year present a situation which, the commission believes, ought to be the subject of immediate legislation. Seventy-six accidents investigated comprised 51 collisions and 25 derailments, and caused the death of 283 and the injury of 1889 persons.

Among the important recommendations for new legislation are the following:

That one period be fixed for the beginning of all actions relating to transportation charges and that the period be within three years from the completion of the service as to which damages are claimed.

That a carrier which fails to demand payment of charges for any transportation service within a period of ninety days shall be deemed guilty of giving a rebate to the shipper.

That all suits brought to enforce or set aside orders of the commission be directly under the supervision of the commission, instead of, as now, under the direction of the department of justice; and that the commission be charged primarily with the duty of presenting such cases in court subject to the right of the department of justice or private individuals to intervene to protect public or private interests.

That the commission be authorized to make orders, after investigation respecting the construction and maintenance of the physical properties of railroads engaged in interstate commerce and rules and regulations pertaining to the use and operation of such properties.

That the commission be given control and supervision over railway capitalization.

That, further to minimize the danger of accidents, the commission be empowered "to require the use of block signal systems and to require the adoption and use of steel or steel underframe cars in passenger service."

That explicit authority be given the commission to examine all books and papers of common carriers subject to the law.

That the commission be relieved of all duties under the parcel post law "or that such duties and the standard to be applied be more clearly stated."

The report gives some consideration to the law providing for physical valuation of railroads. Up to the present time it has not been possible to determine how to prepare an outline of the plans for this great task.

The report shows that the work of the commission increased tremendously in volume. Scores of violations of the law by both carriers and shippers were investigated. In this connection the report says that "the false billing of freight by shippers continues." It is pointed out that serious abuses of transit privileges by both carriers and shippers constitute a continuing evil remedy for which is being worked out by the commission.

BECKER'S MOTHER DEAD

Old Not Know of Convicted Lieutenant's Plight.

New York, Dec. 20.—The mother of former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker, who is in the death house in Sing Sing awaiting execution for the part he played in the murder of Herman Rosenthal, died at her home in this city.

Mrs. Becker had been bedridden for years. She died in ignorance of her son's plight.

For more than a year she had not been permitted to read a newspaper. When her son Charles ceased to visit her, another son, John, told her that Charles was suffering with rheumatism and had been sent to a sanitarium. This explanation satisfied her.

Motor Bandits Steal Gems.

After the robbery they headed back toward Lima, by way of Findlay, but no trace of them has been found.

MEXICAN REBELS ATTACK TAMPICO

Suddenly Descend on Port and Drive Federals Back.

WARSHIPS ARE SUMMONED

General Villa Promises to Return Property to Spaniards Unless They Have Aided Huerta.

Mexico City, Mex., Dec. 20.—Constitutionalists have made another attack upon the Federals at Tampico, driving them back into the center of the city, with the loss of ninety killed and wounded.

The rebels made two attacks simultaneously, one from the west and the other from the northeast. After two hours of sharp fighting the Federals gave way. Darkness had fallen by this time and the rebels drew off without pressing their advantage.

The dispatch, which was received by War Minister Blanquet, said that another general attack was expected by the Federals, and that the Mexican gunboat had been ordered to draw in shore as far as possible to shell the rebel lines.

The British and American warships at Tampico sent wireless orders to Vera Cruz for reinforcements. The warships at Tampico are filled with refugees who fled from the city when the firing began. The United States scout cruiser Chester and the British cruiser Suffolk were ordered to hurry to Tampico.

A grave ammunition shortage faces the Huerta government. It is asserted that there are only 1,000,000 rounds of cartridges left in the arsenal in Mexico City owing to the reckless use of ammunition by the Federals. This would be insufficient to resist a concerted attack on the city. An ammunition shipment from Europe is not expected for some time.

Two Americans who arrived in Mexico City from Tampico declare that the Federal troops looted the fashionable section of the foreign colony, carrying away all the valuables they could find. These Americans lost everything.

VILLA TO DISGORGE LOOT

Will Return Property to Spaniards Unless They Have Aided Huerta.

El Paso, Tex., Dec. 20.—General Francisco Villa said in Chihuahua City that he would be disposed to follow the suggestions of the United States as to the rights of foreigners in Mexico.

In conformity with this plan he has named a committee to take an inventory of the property of the expelled Spaniards and said he would indemnify such as had not actively supported the Huerta government.

General Villa had received, through the American consul, Marion Letcher, representations which expressed the position of the United States in assuming moral responsibility for the welfare of citizens of other nations and which called upon Villa for a strict accounting of his acts, should the rights of any foreigners be violated.

A communication also had been received from General Venustiano Carranza, "first chief" of the revolution, following the protests of Spaniards that their property had been seized and the protests of other foreigners that they had been forced to pay money to the rebel cause.

"I ordered all property belonging to Spaniards to be confiscated and held pending an investigation as to who of the Spaniards aided Huerta," said Villa. "In order to guarantee the property while it is in our hands I have named honorable and responsible persons to take inventory of it."

"It is well known that in the uprising in Mexico City last February hundreds of Spaniards sided with Felix Diaz and with arms co-operated in the uprising which enabled Huerta to bring so much suffering to Mexicans. When I attacked Torreón, Spaniards again fired on us on the pretext that they were guarding their own interests. In Chihuahua the majority of Spaniards were Huerta sympathizers. When I entered the city I resolved upon their expulsion, because their lives were in danger from the feeling held against them by our army."

"The rights of all other foreigners have and will be protected. Arrests are being made daily of persons suspected of being Huerta sympathizers. They are held pending an investigation of their acts."

Tries Three Times to Die, But Can't. Newton, N. J., Dec. 20.—Edward Williams failed in the third attempt to end his life in five days. First he took parli green. He recovered and was taken to the poorhouse, where he cut his throat. Bailed in this, he tried to jump from a high window, but was overpowered and taken to jail.

Bryan to Visit Florida.

Washington, Dec. 20.—Secretary of State Bryan left Washington for a week's visit to his winter home in Miami, Fla. Mr. Bryan will stop on the way at Asheville, N. C., and Jacksonville, Fla. The secretary has no speeches scheduled for the trip.

Cets Year For Killing Girl With Auto. Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 20.—Roman Schubert was found guilty of murder in the fourth degree and sentenced to one year in prison for running down and killing Mabel Lohman, four years old, with an automobile.

Had Him Worrying.

"Alphonse," the American girl asked her titled husband one evening, "why have you been so strange and cold of late?" "Didn't you tell me last week that your father was failing?" "Yes—physically failing," she replied. "Oh!" and his look brightened. He heaved a sigh of relief. "Oh," said he, "that's all right, then. I thought it was something serious."—Princeton Tiger.

Considerate!

A Wesleyan Methodist missionary in India (says the "Manchester Guardian") wrote home to the girl he was in love with, asking her to come out and marry him. The girl's aunt had the same name. She got the letter and went out. The missionary met her on the quay, and such was his delicacy of mind that he married her. When she died, years afterwards, he married the niece.

Weaving the Web of Life.

Life is the daily web of character we unconsciously weave. Our thoughts, imaginations, purpose, motives, love, will, are the underthreads; our words, tone of voice, looks, acts, habits, are the upper threads; and the passing moment is the shuttle, swiftly, ceaselessly, relentlessly, weaving those threads into a web; and that web is life.—S. D. Gordon.

Simple Pleasures.

To become again more joyous, more childlike, more naive than we are, to look into the world with clear eyes and to consign to the devil the problematical chimeras behind which only too often hides the unclean turmoil of the market place, chimeras which have made us unhappy, slavish and uncertain—that would do us all good.—Boston Transcript.

To Remove Paper.

A good way to remove old wall paper is to use the following solution: A thick paste solution should be made by adding four and a few ounces of acetic acid. This paste solution should be applied with a brush to the old wall paper in quantities. After a few minutes the old paper can be removed in great strips very easily and with very little dust or dirt.

People Worth Watching.

There are certain persons whom physiognomists say should be avoided by certain other persons. Thus, the talker is warned to keep away from the person with the overhanging forehead, for he will prove exceedingly deep in argument. The business man is advised to watch carefully when dealing with the man with the receding forehead and chin, the large, curved and prominent nose, for he will prove shrewd in business.

The Attraction.

A rather eccentric man, calling on a family blessed by an observant little son, wore kid gloves that had been cleaned. The little boy, seeming to be much attracted by the visitor, stayed close at his side. "You like to stand by Mr. Blank and hear his funny stories, don't you, Jimmie?" presently asked Jimmie's father. "I don't care about his stories," replied the honest youngster, "but his hands smell just like our automobile."

Republican Who Aided In Adopting Changes In Convention.

A new basis of apportionment to govern the selection of delegates to republican national conventions was adopted by the Republican national committee in a meeting in Washington. Senator Borah, of Idaho, was named on a committee, with Charles Warren, of Michigan, and Mr. Hatfield, of West Virginia, to submit the proposals adopted at the national committee to the various state conventions.

WIRE LINES' PLAN HALTS U. S. SUIT

Telephone and Telegraph Co. to Restore Competition.

Washington, Dec. 20. — Attorney General McReynolds made public details of an agreement for reorganization of the American telephone and telegraph company — the "Telephone Trust" — which will prevent litigation to dissolve that corporation under the antitrust act, and under which competitive conditions will be restored in the telephone service of the entire country and the combine will dispose of its holdings in the Western Union Telegraph company.

The reorganization plan originated with the company, although it followed many reports that a suit against it might be filed. It was regarded by department of justice officials as the most striking indication offered in a decade that "big business" has come to the conclusion that it is better to follow the Sherman law than to fight it. The plan met not only the approval of the attorney general and his chief "trust buster," G. C. Todd, and officials of the subsidiaries of the combine, but was heartily approved by President Wilson. In a letter to Mr. McReynolds the president expressed his admiration for the attitude of the telephone company and his conviction that such conduct on the part of business men meant a building up of business on sound and permanent lines.

Coming on the heels of the announcement that Postmaster General Burleson is seriously interested in government ownership of telephone lines, the action of the department of justice took on an added significance, and some officials went so far as to express the opinion that it indicated that legislation to acquire the country's telephone business would not be pressed by the administration at the present session.

PREDICT SOFT COAL STRIKE

Pennsylvania Operators Think Miners May Not Renew Agreement.
Philadelphia, Dec. 20. — A strike of the Pennsylvania soft coal miners was predicted by members of the Association of Bituminous Operators.

The probability of refusal of the miners to renew an arbitration agreement was the basis of the prediction. The miners have until next Wednesday to make up their minds.

One operator said that Philadelphia would be in danger of a soft coal famine if there was a tie-up at the mines. Barely enough soft coal to last the city two weeks is now here, he said.

Washington, Dec. 20. — The First National bank, of Elizabeth, Pa., did not open its doors, under orders from its board of directors, according to a message received by Acting Comptroller of the Currency Kane. THE POTTSVILLE CASE

May Give Decision in Petition For Writ Against City Charter Tuesday. Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 20.—While no decision was announced by Deputy Attorney General J. E. B. Cunningham at the conclusion of the third hearing in the proceeding for a writ of quo warranto against the charter of Pottsville as a third class city, it is believed that one will be awarded next Tuesday, and that it will be tried in the Schuylkill county court.

The hearing held was the final one, the city officials elected last November presenting their side. The burden of the opposition to the issuance of the writ was that the petitioners had not availed themselves of the opportunity to attack the legality of the election or to protest against issuance of a charter.

The procedure is based on the contention that the petitioners got the order for a special election on the question of becoming a city from the court of quarter sessions instead of an act of assembly passed ten days before an act which restricted the power of ordering an election to council. The petitioners for the writ contend that the latter law should have been followed.

PATRICK'S WIFE DIES AFTER BIG SACRIFICE

Gave Up Health and Fortune to Free Him.

Tulsa, Okla., Dec. 20.—Mrs. Albert T. Patrick, wife of the New York lawyer convicted of the murder of millionaire William M. Rice, and later pardoned, died here.

Mrs. Patrick had been ill for some time. Her husband and children were with her.

For love Mrs. Patrick sacrificed not only her fortune, but her life. The woman who was willing to marry a man four days after he had been convicted of murder, who went through the marriage ceremony in the shadow of the Tomb, and whose honeymoon was deferred for ten years, had one year of happiness.

For ten years she lived within sight of the walls of the prison. Her faith was finally rewarded. On Thanksgiving Day, 1912, Patrick was released by Governor Dix. As he stepped out of the doors of the prison his first thought was for the woman who had stood by him so unswervingly.

On Thanksgiving a year ago they began their long deferred honeymoon. A few days after Patrick's release he left New York with his wife. For a time they visited relatives in St. Louis, living as quietly as possible.

The ten long years of nerve racking strain were beginning to tell on Mrs. Patrick. When the final victory came she was exhausted.

READING CLERK RESIGNS

Says Relations With Council Would Be Uncongenial.

Reading, Pa., Dec. 20.—City Clerk L. S. Ramsey, who was indicted by the grand jury on the charge of accepting a bribe and conspiracy in connection with the alleged graft cases in the purchase of fire apparatus by the city, tendered his resignation to city council. The resignation is as follows:

"I was advised that it was the desire of the members of council that I resign my office as city clerk. Whilst not inquiring into their reasons therefor, I realize that since the official relations between council and city clerk are of such an intimate nature, those relations, in view of your desire, would be by no means congenial, and for this reason and for no other, whatever, I have concluded to comply with your wishes."

The position pays $1980 a year, and Ramsey's term would not have expired until May, 1915.

Zelaya to Sail Monday.

Washington, Dec. 20.—The state department was informed that Jose Santos Zelaya, former dictator of Nicaragua, has engaged a stateroom on La Lorraine for next Monday and will return to Spain. Action of the former Nicaraguan president is believed to be due to the very plain hints from the state department that he had better not delay his departure too long.

THE TWO LEADERS.

Huerta and Carranza, Leaders of Opposing Armies in Mexico.

Photos by American Press Association.

The situation in Mexico is fast reaching a stage where something will be done, either by the Federals, the rebels or the United States. These are the very latest pictures of the leaders of the opposing factions. The picture of Huerta (top) was taken only a few days ago. Carranza, shown below, is said to be favored by President Wilson, and this belief is strengthened by the fact that a special envoy was sent to confer with the Constitutionalist leader.

SERIOUSLY BURNED CLEANING TROUSERS

Uses Gasoline, Lights Cigarette and Clothes Take Fire.

Laurel, Del., Dec. 20. — Merrill Thompson, a clerk in a local store here, was badly burned when he dropped his cigarette in his lap after cleaning his trousers with gasoline.

The young man was given medical treatment by Dr. Ferlow, who said that while the young man's condition was critical he did not believe that the burns would prove fatal.

Shortly after breakfast Thompson noticed that he had dropped some egg which he had been eating on his trousers. The young man procured some gasoline from a nearby drug store and started to clean the spots from his clothing. When partly finished Thompson lighted a cigarette and continued with his cleaning.

The cigarette fell into his lap, lighting the gasoline-soaked trousers and badly burned the man before he could be wrapped in blankets and the flames extinguished.

Serious Catarrh Yields To Hyomei

Do not let this serious disease extend along the delicate mucous membrane, gradually going from the nose to the throat, thence into the bronchial tubes and downward into the lungs. There is no other treatment for catarrh that is like Hyomei or just as good. None can take its place, none give such quick, effective and sure relief and at so little cost—furthermore People's Drug Store will refund your money if you are not satisfied.

Begin using Hyomei now—to-day—and see how quickly the droppings into the throat, the discharge from the nose, sniffing and all other symptoms of catarrh are overcome; and remember—no stomach dragging—you breathe it. The complete outfit containing inhaler and bottle of liquid costs but $1.00. Extra bottles of liquid, if later needed, 50 cents.
